

Scholar in Residence Shabbat

at

Congregation Agudat Achim

April 5 & 6

Join us Friday night, April 5, for a Kabbalat Shabbat service at 6 pm followed by a pot luck dinner when

Dr. Rachel Adelman will teach

“Why do we invite Elijah to our Seder?”

Shabbat morning services on Saturday begin at 9:30am, followed by a Kiddush luncheon when Dr. Adelman will teach

"When the Women Refused to Strip off their Finery (or Why Rosh Chodesh is a Women's Festival)"

Rachel Adelman (Ph.D., Hebrew University of Jerusalem), is currently an assistant professor of Hebrew Bible at Hebrew College in Boston. When not writing books, articles or divrei torah, it is poetry that flows from her pen.

The Scholar in Residence Shabbat is free thanks to a grant from the Fitchburg and Leominster JCC. The luncheon is sponsored in honor of the Tharler family. Please support our efforts to provide cultural programming by making a donation to Congregation Agudat Achim 268 Washington St., Leominster MA

For info: Office@Agudat-Achim.org or 978-534-6121